Re: Willomon v. Andrews International, Inc., No. 13-cv-06795 (PAC) (JCF)

Dear Judge Francis:

We represent defendant Andrews International, Inc. ("Andrews Int'l") in the above-referenced action. I write to object to Plaintiff's request, filed this afternoon at approximately 3p.m., for an adjournment of tomorrow's pre-trial conference scheduled for 9:30 a.m.

As per Your Honor's individual practices, requests for adjournments are to be made 48 hours prior to a conference, absent emergencies. Mr. Henry fails to justify his eleventh-hour request to adjourn this conference, especially where this conference was scheduled nearly two months ago, on October 20, 2015. This Court expressly warned at that time that a failure to appear at the December 17, 2015 conference may result in a dismissal of this case, ostensibly because Plaintiff has failed to diligently prosecute his claims—this case was filed on September 24, 2013, and has been largely idle since that time.

We respectfully request that this Court deny the motion to adjourn.

Sincerely,

/s/ Roshni Chaudhari
